

Sinful

Delights

WRITTEN BY CHARITY DOYL

Rarely have I found someone who does not like CHOCOLATE.

For the past six months I have been on a quest to discover the best chocolates. My finds were approved by food connoisseur, De Scott, owner of Simply Northwest and fellow chocoholic Susan Davis, owner of The Chocolate Apothecary.

Twenty pounds later, we have compiled a list of the best chocolates in the Pacific Northwest

Dilettante Seattle, Washington

206.328-1530 or 888.600.2462 • www.dilettante.com

MOST DECADENT CHOCOLATE

Dilettante has been creating fine chocolates, coffee beverages and pastries for Seattleites for over 30 years. Dana Taylor Davenport, founder of Dilettante, is a chocolatier and pastry chef, whose culinary heritage traces back through three generations of family tradition. Once created for European royalties, Dilettante's chocolates is truly a decadent experience.

Chocolate Myracles Spokane, WA

509.995.1271 • www.chocolatemyracles.com

BEST HUCKLEBERRY BONBONS

Imagine a Belgian semi-sweet chocolate that slowly melts in your mouth as you slowly savor the hand picked huckleberries from the mountains of the Inland Northwest. Blended with locally produced cream cheese, this delicious chocolate creation is a Northwest exclusive. Huckleberry tinted white chocolate crosses the top of this savory treasure. Chocolate Myracles, produces the finest in gourmet truffles and bonbons, catering to the true chocolate connoisseur. Julia Myracle's passion for chocolate and creative instincts has resulted in delicious and unique recipes that are not found in any chocolatier publication or cookbook.

continued on page 54▶

